Required for – September 2022

Early Years Foundation Stage Leader (MPS/UPS)

St John Henry Newman Catholic Primary School will be a brand new three-form entry primary school situated on the growing development of Hampton Waters opening in September 2022. This post provides the successful candidate the opportunity to play a leading role in developing a school community from the very beginning and grow an 'Outstanding' Early Years curriculum rooted in the Catholic Values.

We can offer you: -

- A rare and unique opportunity to be the very first teacher to be appointed in the school's history
- A brand new, Eco school building
- Outstanding IT facilities
- The opportunity to develop an Early Years curriculum, including working closely with our onsite Nursery.
- A supportive and knowledgeable governing body
- Small class size
- Personalised Professional Development

We are looking for:

- An experienced Early Years practitioner
- An individual who has experience of developing and implementing an Early Years curriculum
- Someone who is highly adaptable to the challenges of opening a new school.
- An individual committed to nurturing children within a strong Catholic environment.

If you are ready to be part of the history of St John Henry Newman Catholic Primary School, please contact via the school office email: -
