St Edmund's Catholic Primary School
Assistant Headteacher

Full Time
Salary: Leadership Range 4-8
Start Date: April 2023

This is an exciting opportunity to take on the newly created role of Assistant Head at the federation of St Edmund's and St Joseph's Catholic Primary Schools. We are looking for an experienced teacher to lead the development of curriculum and assessment, and teaching and learning alongside the Executive Headteacher and Heads of School. The role is non-class based and will involve leadership across both sites with the majority based at St Edmund's. The successful candidate will bring their expertise and knowledge of the primary curriculum in supporting subject leaders to ensure pupils enjoy a knowledge rich learning experience which promotes inclusion, diversity and excellence.

You will be joining an established federation of two primary schools where shared planning and assessment are designed to support staff well-being. Curriculum teams works across the federation to provide opportunities for collaboration, coaching and mentoring. Our Staff are able to participate in significant professional development opportunities from induction of Early Career Teachers to NPQML, NPQSL, NPQH and Master's degree. As a Rights, Respecting School (UNICEF) we are proud of the calm and productive atmosphere which supports teachers and pupils to be successful.

We welcome staff who share and support the Catholic ethos of our school.

The Federation is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and requires all staff and volunteers to demonstrate this commitment in every aspect of their work. The successful candidate will need to undertake a DBS check.

Interested candidates are strongly encouraged to visit either school or have an informal discussion with the Executive Head, Maria Kemble. Please visit our website (https://www.st-edmunds.suffolk.sch.uk/) to learn more about our schools.
