Notre Dame High School is an 11-18 highly successful and oversubscribed Roman Catholic school with Academy status, currently assisting with the formation of the St John the Baptist Catholic MAT. We were graded 'Outstanding' in our last Ofsted.

We are seeking an enthusiastic and committed Head of Geography who can further build on a strong teaching team achieving good results at GCSE and A-level, following the retirement of our current Head of Geography. We require an outstanding classroom teacher with experience of teaching in several key stages, who has a proven track record of innovative and effective leadership in teaching and learning.

We are a thriving school in the centre of the busy and attractive city of Norwich. A striking feature of the school is the outstanding quality of relationships between students and teachers and between students themselves.
