Teacher of Politics (and an additional Social Science) Full time

Required for September 2018

Notre Dame High School is an 11-18 highly successful and oversubscribed Roman Catholic school. As an Outstanding school, one of only 22 EEF/IEE Research Schools nationally, and a leading Teaching School in Norfolk, we seek to attract the best teachers and develop them with the exciting variety of opportunities which arise here.

We are looking to appoint an enthusiastic and committed Teacher of Politics, with the flexibility and willingness to teach an additional Social Science and PSHEE, to join our Social Science department.

Join us at Notre Dame and benefit from:

- a culture which values respect, honesty and kindness;
- great training, leading to great professional development and career progression;
- an outstanding quality of relationship between pupils and teachers, and between pupils themselves;
- a driven focus on reducing teacher workload.

For an application form and further details including a job description and person specification, please visit our website at www.ndhs.org.uk.

Preliminary visits to the school or discussions regarding the post are welcome by arrangement with Julian McKay, Assistant Headteacher, jmckay@ndhs.org.uk

Closing date: Friday 11th May 2018
Interview date: Monday 21st May 2018

Notre Dame High School welcomes applications from members of minority ethnic communities and those with disabilities. The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Enhanced DBS clearance is required for appointment to this post.
