Notre Dame High School is an 11-18 highly successful and oversubscribed Roman Catholic school with Academy status. We are part of the St John the Baptist Catholic MAT. We are a 2024 Ofsted rated 'Good with Outstanding features' school, one of only 37 EEF Research Schools nationally, and one of the 87 designated Teaching School Hubs nationally.

We are looking to appoint an enthusiastic and committed Science Technician, with the flexibility and willingness to join our very successful science department. Experience in physics would be an advantage, but applications are welcome from all.

Join us at Notre Dame and benefit from:

- a culture which values respect, honesty and kindness;
- great training, leading to great professional development and career progression;
- an outstanding quality of relationship between pupils and teachers, and between pupils themselves;
- a driven focus on reducing teacher and support staff workload.

For an application form and further details including a job description and person specification, please visit our website at www.ndhs.org.uk.

Preliminary visits to the school or discussions regarding the post are welcome by arrangement with Chris Moore our Head of Science or Kerstin Watkins, Senior Science Technician who can be contacted by email: cmoore@ndhs.org.uk or kwatkins@ndhs.org.uk

We are unable to provide sponsorship for this position, so please ensure you have the right to work in the UK before you apply.

Notre Dame High School welcomes applications from members of minority ethnic communities and those with disabilities.

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and we expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment in accordance with safer recruitment practices and the statutory guidance in Keeping Children Safe in Education. Successful applicants will be required to provide references and undertake an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check and comply with the Safeguarding Policy and Child Protections practices of the Trust.
